Paying a Debt of Gratitude

Note what Mr. Mott Allen, of Union City, says: Was badly afflicted with rheumatism for more than eight months and at times had to get up at 11 o'clock and stay up the balance of the night. Could not dress myself without aid from my wife. I am now entirely cured, and by the use of only one bottle of Crocker's Rheumatic Remedy. For sale by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

A Passenger Ticket.

The principle that when a railroad company sells a ticket that ticket is good for one ride between the points named upon it is a well known one, yet it is one that the railroads have consistently fought for many years, claiming that a ticket was a contract entered into between the company and the purchaser whereby the latter agrees that no one but himself shall use the same for transportation. In this connection the Supreme Court in New York has recently handed down an important decision in which it is said that the right to sign another man's name to a railroad ticket which has been sold by one passenger to another is not forgery, and that the sale of the ticket carries with it the purchaser's right to sign to it the name of the man from whom he bought it. This decision, which is the first of its kind, sets a precedent in the exchange of railroad tickets which affects thousands of passengers.—Falls Creek Herald.

Maro, the Magician.

There is nothing more delightful to the little ones, or the older ones either, than an entertainment in magic. They have all read about Aladdin and his wonderful lamp. They have all read the fascinating books of Hans Anderson, and the marvelous "Grimm's Fairy Tales," and know the different wizards in these stories so well that if they met them on the street they wouldn't be the least afraid. But it is one thing to read about these wizards of "ye olden times" and quite another to see one in this enlightened day of the world. To be sure there are only a few, a very few real meritorious and recognized conjurers in our country to-day, and "the youngest of the great and the greatest of the young" of these wonder-workers is Maro. His easy graceful manner and pleasant conversational way of presenting things to his audience at once wins their confidence and esteem. For by his peculiar method of working he gives out the impression that he is not trying to deceive his audience, and to this fact alone may be attributed a greater portion of Maro's success, for his auditors at once become on friendly terms with him, and enter into the various illusions almost as ardently as the magician himself. Maro is always looking about him for something new, and is constantly presenting a program of late novelties. He may be termed a "popular conjurer," for he is just wise enough for the sedate, humorous enough for the fashionable, and just mysterious enough to please the old and the young alike. At Assembly hall Friday evening, January 26th.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER E. T. MCGAW.

MCGAW-WOODS CONTEST DEFINITELY SETTLED.

Case Withdrawn and Costs will be Paid by the Petitioners.—Mr. McGaw will Serve Full Term.

It was stated in THE STAR last week that the election contest case of E. T. McGaw and Frank Woods had virtually been settled in Mr. McGaw's favor, but that Judge Reed had held the case over until Monday, January 15, to get all the names of the original signers of the petition for the contest on the petition for withdrawal of the contest, all but three having signed the withdrawal petition when the case came before the court on the 8th inst. The other three names were added to the petition last week and on Monday of this week Judge Reed dismissed the case at the cost of the petitioners, and Mr. McGaw will now serve the full term as commissioner. Mr. McGaw will fill the office creditably and can always be depended upon to look faithfully after the interests of the tax payers of Jefferson county.

The charge in the petition for contesting Mr. McGaw's seat on board of county commissioners was that about seventy illegal votes had been polled in North Young township by persons whose names did not appear on the register, and there was no charge of fraud either against the election board or Mr. McGaw, in fact Mr. McGaw knew nothing about the vote in North Young precinct until the contest case was instituted. It appears now that the names of most all, if not all, of those charged with illegal voting were on the register, but they are foreigners and were not registered under the same names they had given at other places.

The judge said in his remarks in dismissing the case that there was no charge of fraud in the petition, only a irregularity of the election board. We understand that out of thirty precincts investigated in getting up a defense for Mr. McGaw, that there was not one in which irregularity, from one to forty-three votes, was not found on the same ground that complaint was made in North Young precinct.

It is also claimed that some election boards paid no attention to the sheriff's proclamation and the election laws in organizing the boards, in as much as township officers and U. S. mail carriers were allowed to sit on election boards.

Summersville Telephone Co. Meeting.

At 10.00 a. m. on Wednesday of last week, January 10, a meeting of the stockholders of the Summersville Telephone Company was held at Summersville and the old board of directors and officers were re-elected and are as follows: President, Dr. J. K. Brown, of Brookville; vice president, William Osborn, DuBois; secretary, J. S. Hammond, Reynoldsville; treasurer, David L. Taylor, Brookville; auditor, S. M. McCreight, Reynoldsville; general superintendent, Dr. J. A. Haven, Summersville. Directors, Dr. J. K. Brown, Brookville, J. S. Hammond, W. T. Cox, Reynoldsville, J. C. Robinson, Punxsutawney, Wm. Osborn, F. W. Prothero, DuBois, Benjamin Keck, Shannondale.

We can tell you something about horse blankets. Come in and see us. Reynoldsville Hardware Company.

Soldier.

Miss Maggie Bell, of Wishaw, is visiting friends here.

Miss Kate Ross has accepted a position as type-writer in the law office of G. M. McDonald, of Reynoldsville.

Mrs. James Ross is still in Reynoldsville caring for her daughter, Mrs. Morris Smith, who has been quite ill.

A big fire occurred here Monday morning, between the hours of seven and eight o'clock. A large block owned by the Jefferson & Clearfield Coal & Iron Co. was entirely consumed. The men had to work heroically to save the adjoining house.

A shooting match took place here recently, the company's store was the mark. A number of foreigners were standing in road a short distance above the store and were shooting, no one knew what at when all of a sudden a ball crashed through the large window in the front of the store, through the show case window and struck the steam register in the center of the store, where a short time previous a number of people had been standing. Had it been a draw day for the people here and the store full of children and grown people no knowing what the consequences would have been. The company's store is a small mark (?) to shoot at.

Maro as an Artist.

A magician must have some artistic temperament but an artist need not have the temperament of a necromancer. In Maro, however, are combined both these talents. He is an exponent of art in its highest sense, and the large pictures drawn by him in full colors of nature on his mechanically revolving easel are truly an exhibition of art and dexterity. He draws them in from twenty-five to forty-five seconds and to make it more wonderful and entertaining to the audience the pictures are drawn edge wise and up side down, the easel board afterwards being righted, by mechanical contrivance, when the beauty of a real work of art suddenly dawns upon you, for Maro is a real artist. At Assembly hall Friday evening, January 26.

Frank Hills attended the social at the Best school Saturday evening.

Miss Sarah Keller has resigned her school on account of failing health.

Mead Syphrit has been suffering with a severe cold in his throat the past week.

Thomas Syphrit, who has been visiting his parents in this place, has returned to Pittsburg, where he is employed in the Westinghouse electrical works.

The young people of our village have been having what they call a "good time" the past week and their enjoyment is due to the fact that the ice on Ludwick's dam is fine for skating. Every evening their merry voices can be heard as they glide smoothly along.

Paradise Grange held their installation and supper on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Womeldorf, of Rathmel Grange, and K. B. Deemer, of Hurantown, were the visiting members. Our Grange has great reason to be proud of our order, as we have about eighty members in good standing, and talent to render as fine a program as any Grange in the county. Our success is due to the deep interest taken by each member.
